MR. FOX PUTS IN A BID.

Wants to Mill Savage Ore at $3.50.

NEW YORK MESSENGERS PREPARING TO STRIKE.

Tenbroeck, the Noted Horseman, Found Dead in Dead.

Special to the APPEAL:

Fox Puts in a Bid to Mill Ore.

San Francisco, Aug 1—This afternoon, M. W. Fox, plaintiff in Hale and Norcross suit, put in a written bid to the Directors of the Savage Mining Company, agreeing to mill Savage ores for one year at $3.50 a ton. He requires that ores shall be delivered at the mill he shall designate, at the Company's expense, and agrees to return in bullion, not less than 65 per cent of the car sample assays of all ores of not less value than $20 a ton. The Directors as yet have taken no action on the bid.

A Saloon Row.

San Francisco, Aug 1—William Otto, a fireman who was struck on the head yesterday by James Gallagher, is now lying at the point of death. Gallagher is still in hiding. The assault was the outcome of an attack by a saloon man named Hess on Frank Becker. Hess went to the Fire Commissioners and gave up his badge. He was taken to jail, and charged with assault and battery and disturbing the peace.

Hale & Norcross Suit Matters.

San Francisco, August 1—Motions to relax costs in the mining accounting case of Fox vs. Hale & Norcross Mining Co. were continued by Judge Hebbard today, until next Thursday, with the understanding that plaintiff shall have access to testimony written out at the expense of the defendants, and execution was stayed until the determination of motion for a new trial.

Death of Tenbroeck.

San Mateo, Aug. 1—Richard Tenbroeck, the well known horseman, was found dead in bed at his home, The Hermitage, near here at 11 o'clock this morning. Everything about the room was in order, and the arms of deceased were folded on his breast. He was over 80 years old, and has been an invalid from gout for years.

No Wonder they Struck.

New York, N. Y. August 1—It is expected that about 500 American district telegraph messengers will strike for more wages and less hours. They get 2 1/2 cents each trip and sometimes carry half a dozen messages in one trip. They desire to be paid by the message and they want hours shortened to eleven hours per day.

Public Economy.

In order to meet the $15,000 reduction in the Mint appropriation, ten people had to be drafted. The ax fell on the following:

Thos. Styles of Assay office.
J. Burlingame and Charles Starratt of the Melting Department.
E. F. Hall and Thomas Haley of the General Department.
Robert Mudd and Mr. Bailey of the Coiner's Department.
Miss Josie Barnes and Mrs. Daniher of the Adjusting force.
Mrs. G. Thompson, Assistant Seamstress.

French Picnic.

There was a French picnic at Bland's ranch on the Carson river, on Sunday, attended by the members of the local 400 of the French colony of Carson.

There was dancing and refreshments, tug-of-war and other pleasant pastimes, along with flow of good wine and lots of genuine hilarity.

While the Grand Jury was in session it might be a good idea to ask the District Attorney why Chinese lotteries are run constantly in Chinatown in open violation of a law which no white man dare violate in the city. Before election he posed as a most radical reformer and announced that he was about to purge the county of all iniquity. Since his term of office began he has been the friend and protector of what is generally known as "the gang"

Weaver's should be alive to the fact that he speaks in Virginia next Thursday night and that a special train will be run from Carson.

DEATH OF SAM WRIGHT.

He Expires Early Yesterday Morning.

Sometime yesterday morning, Hon. Sam C. Wright expired at his residence in this city of dropsy. As he had been afflicted with this disease for a number of years, and of late in a most exaggerated form, his death was not unexpected to his family or the community.

He died peacefully while sleeping at his wife's side, and his death was discovered by her about 3 o'clock.

Samuel Coleman Wright was born in Syracuse, New York, and was 61 years of age. He came to the Pacific Coast in 1860. He was appointed Land Receiver of Nevada by Gen. Grant, and retired from office after Cleveland was elected President. He was then appointed Superintendent of the Mint by President Harrison. He leaves a wife and two children, also a mother residing in Syracuse.

He was a leading Mason and Knight Templar, and his remains will be taken to Sacramento tonight, where he owns a lot in the cemetery. He will there be buried by the Knight's Templar.

His fortune is estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000 and his affairs are in excellent condition.

ALL SORTS.

Ex-Gov. Adams arrived in Carson last evening.

This is hot enough to melt the tires on an ice wagon.

During the last three days the thermometer has touched 99 in the shade.

The Carson Weekly has been enlarged three times since it started and it is full of news as it can stick.

The heated wave compels people in New York to sleep on the roofs. Nevada is the only place to sleep in July and August.

Camping parties who wish to have their return from the leafy woods duly chronicled in this sheet, will throw a string of trout over the transome.

President Huntington of the Southern Pacific has requested Wm. H. Milles, Esp., to secure the services of some California horticulturist to go to Africa to investigate its horticultural possibilities.

A snake was killed on Alpowa creek, Wash., the other day which measured five feet in length and boasted seventeen rattles. It was the largest snake seen in that vicinity for years.

The officers of the Pennsylvania Militia who string private soldiers up by the thumbs must be the counterparts of those whom Mearns alluded to when he wrote:

"Who bore to look on torture but dare not look on war."

There will be a called meeting of Carson Lodge No. 1, F. & A. M. at 4:30 o'clock this evening. A full attendance is earnestly solicited.

By order of the W. M.
Geo. H. Bell,
Secretary.

Chinaman complain that they have been yanked up in the justice court and fined without any trials by Sumnerfield and Hawthorne. The Chinese have been kicking about this for some time. It might be a good idea to see what grounds they have for their complaints.

The illustrated Californian contains a piece of dialect verse by W. A. Elderskin of the U. S. A. called "Jim Baker."

It represents a common character in every town, the village fighter.

Baker is depicted as the bravest man in the town, who resented the slightest insult at the drop of the hat and thrashed everybody who looked cross eyed at him. He was the terror of the town a man who considered fighting more desirable than eating.

When the war broke out he didn't enlist but announced that if anybody insulted him he was afraid to go he would maul his head until he changed his views. He was finally drafted but as he was always sick when an engagement was going on no one was able to see how hard he could fight. Finally he got mixed up in a battle and ran a bayonet through his own ear in order to get an excuse to avoid any further trouble with the enemy. The poem closes, by describing the pension Jim Barker has been drawing ever since.

Pasturage.

On the Duffy and Kirman ranches which contain over 700 acres, being the largest body of pasture land in Ormsby county. As the waters from Clear Creek flume, Ash Canyon and Lake View flow through the property it is the best watered. From the extended range it is eminently fitted for stock cattle and horses. Two bulls, a Holstein and a Jersey, are kept for the service of stock. A limited number of milk cows will be driven from and returned to the city daily. Season commences April 15th. Terms reasonable.

A Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his stock. d 13 tf
